ABOUT US:

THE PARENTS' GUIDE TO is exclusively for parents of 14-19 year olds, providing them with the information they need to help their teenage children make the right choices after GCSE and sixth form.

We offer advice through social media, articles, newsletters, free downloads, and specialist guides, all presented in a style that's easy to understand.

Our first guide was released in 2019, and since then, The Parents' Guide to has continued to grow. We reach parents directly, through our network of school and college subscribers, and via our website, www.theparentsguideto.co.uk.

ADVERTISE WITH US:

Promote your organisation or event in one of our annual publications:

- » The Parents' Guide to National Apprenticeship Week
- » The Parents' Guide to National Careers Week
- » The Parents' Guide to What's Next

Each specialist guide helps our network of school, college and parent subscribers support teens in understanding what choices are available after GCSE and sixth form. Helping young people make informed choices gives them the best chance of selecting the career pathway that is right for them. We share each guide through direct email, on our website, via social media and on our partner platforms for 12 months each year.

Parents are significant influencers in the decisions teens make post 16 and post 18. We want every parent to have access to information that helps them feel more comfortable talking to their teens about the opportunities ahead – so we don't charge for any of these guides.
